

Autumn

for upper-voice choir, unaccompanied

music by ALAN BULLARD

poem by F. Politzer

Rhythmic and with movement (♩ = c.84)

Voices in unison

Whirl - - - ing leaves, gold - en and brown, Twist-ing and turn - ing, hur-

S. 1

S. 2

A.

(rehearsal only)

- - ry-ing down. Driv-ing wind, gus - - ty and strong, Whis -

- - ry-ing down, hur-ry-ing down, -

12

- - tling and sigh-ing, sigh-ing, rush - - - ing a - long.

- - tling and sigh-ing, sigh-ing, rush - - - ing a - long.

hur-ry-ing down, rush - ing a-long.

This song originally formed part of Seasons, a cantata commissioned by Sing for Pleasure for their twenty-fifth anniversary concert in Huddersfield in 1989

Words reprinted from Wordscapes by Barry Maybury (Oxford University Press) and used with permission.

Revised edition © 2007 Alan Bullard.