

The Brisk Young Widow

English folk-song, arranged for SATB choir, unaccompanied

ALAN BULLARD

Fast and lightly (♩ = c.112)

p

Soprano
In Ches-ter town there lived A brisk young wid-ow; For beau-ty and fine

Alto
In Ches-ter town there lived A brisk young wid-ow; For beau-ty and fine

Tenor
In Ches-ter town there lived A brisk young wid-ow; For beau-ty and fine

Bass
In Ches-ter town there lived A brisk young wid-ow; For beau-ty and fine

Keyboard
(rehearsal only)

5

mf p

clothes, None could ex-cel her. She was pro-per, stout, and tall, Her fin-gers long and

mf p

clothes, None could ex-cel her. Stout, and tall, fin-gers

mf p

clothes, None could ex-cel her. She was pro-per, stout, and tall, Her fin-gers long and

mf p

clothes, None could ex-cel her. Stout, and tall, fin-gers

10 mp mf f rit. molto p

small, She's a come-ly dame with - al, She's a brisk young wid-ow. A _____ small, She's a come-ly dame with - al, She's a brisk young wid-ow. A _____ small, She's a come-ly dame with - al, She's a brisk young wid-ow. A _____

small, She's a come-ly dame with - al, She's a brisk young wid-ow. A _____

16 a tempo mp p poco lo - ver soon there came, A brisk young far - mer, With his hat turned up all

lo - ver soon there came, A brisk young far - mer, With his hat turned

lo - ver soon there came, A brisk young far - mer, With his hat turned

lo - ver soon there came, A brisk young far - mer, With his hat turned

comely = handsome